

Protecting the Priceless: How Fine Arts Insurance, Immunity From Seizure, and Indemnity Programs allow Treasures to travel for Exhibition

Lori Breslauer

Follow this and additional works at: <http://via.library.depaul.edu/jatip>

Recommended Citation

Lori Breslauer, Protecting the Priceless: How Fine Arts Insurance, Immunity From Seizure, and Indemnity Programs allow Treasures to travel for Exhibition, 25 DePaul J. Art, Tech. & Intell. Prop. L. 497 (2015)
Available at: <http://via.library.depaul.edu/jatip/vol25/iss2/9>

This Symposium Lectures is brought to you for free and open access by Via Sapientiae. It has been accepted for inclusion in DePaul Journal of Art, Technology & Intellectual Property Law by an authorized administrator of Via Sapientiae. For more information, please contact mbernal2@depaul.edu, wsulliv6@depaul.edu.

PROTECTING THE PRICELESS: HOW FINE ARTS INSURANCE, IMMUNITY
FROM SEIZURE, AND INDEMNITY
PROGRAMS ALLOW TREASURES TO TRAVEL FOR EXHIBITION

Lori Breslauer*

[Lori Breslauer's lecture has been omitted at her request]

* Vice President and General Counsel, Field Museum of Natural History.

