Event Recaps

Vincentian Service Day on May 7

» From making cards for kids to helping out on an urban farm, alumni across the country came together to give back on Vincentian Service Day. At 12 sites in cities like Chicago, New York, Denver and Seattle, alumni lived out DePaul's Vincentian mission by volunteering their time and celebrating in the spirit of service.

Arlington Park Racetrack Outing on June 18

» At the 10th annual racetrack outing, a sell-out alumni crowd watched their horses run from the International Room, a private suite with stunning views of the track.

As Stormin Elle cruised to victory in the Mike Spellman Memorial Handicap, more than 120 alumni and friends enjoyed connecting with one another over a hearty lunch buffet.

Black Alumni Chapter Reception on June 30

» Barbara Rossi's "Eye Owe You!"—one of the DePaul Art Museum's current exhibits—helped provide an eye-catching setting for the Black Alumni Chapter's networking reception at the museum. Guests also perused Tony Fitzpatrick's "The Secret Birds" and another Rossi exhibit, "Poor Traits," while chatting about life since graduation, swapping advice and reminiscing.
