

8-2016

Seton Writings Project: Chronological List 2b (January 1810 - December 1813)

Regina Bechtle S.C.

Judith Metz S.C.

Follow this and additional works at: https://via.library.depaul.edu/seton_stud

Recommended Citation

Bechtle, Regina S.C. and Metz, Judith S.C.. (2016) Seton Writings Project: Chronological List 2b (January 1810 - December 1813).
https://via.library.depaul.edu/seton_stud/5

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Life and works of Elizabeth Ann Bayley Seton (1774-1821) at Digital Commons@DePaul. It has been accepted for inclusion in Seton Writings Project by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@DePaul. For more information, please contact digitalservices@depaul.edu.

Seton Writings Project – Sisters of Charity Federation
Chronological List #2b
Letters to/about Elizabeth Seton
January 1810 – December 1813

Year	Doc #	From	To	Date	Cited	Archival location /status
1810
1810	2.176	Samuel W. Seton, New York "oh! How I wish I was Ned – but I am happy as it is"	Cecilia Seton, Emmitsburg	Jan. 5, 1810		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 17: 33
1810	2.177	Rev. Anthony Kohlmann, New York "I should begin with apologizing for my being so dilatory" – expresses sympathy on death of Harriet Seton.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Jan. 17, 1810	Seton (2009), 231, fn. 105	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 2: 27
1810	2.178	Rev. John Cheverus, Boston "Your esteemed favour of the 27 th ult. did not come to hand till the 18 th inst." – he asks for details concerning her rule, number of sisters, etc.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Jan. 24, 1810	Seton (2009), 152, fn. 69 & 71; 196, fn. 101; 232, fn. 106	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 1: 11
1810	2.179	Samuel W. Seton, New York "Still dear Sister without considering the warmth and sincerity of my affection for you" – a tender letter containing family news.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Jan. 27 [1810]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 17: 2

1810	2.180	Cecilia Seton, Emmitsburg "This day my dearest father, I am filled with the idea that I shall not see the end of this month."	My dearest father [probably Rev. Pierre Babade]	[Feb. 1, 1810]	de Barberey (Code), 286	No original located
1810	2.181	Cecilia [Seton or O'Conway] and Catherine [Seton or Mullen], Emmitsburg "... an account of the first Mission of Charity" – they visited a family of sick children whose mother had died.	Elizabeth Seton and Council, Emmitsburg	Feb. 5 [1810]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4: 101
1810	2.182	Mary Seton, New York "To realize the Death of our dear H[arriet] seems almost impossible" – contains a lot of family news.	Cecilia Seton, Emmitsburg	Feb. 12, 1810		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 16: 8
1810	2.183	Mary Wilkins, [Wilkes?], New York "I have but this moment my dearest dear Cecil returned from Mary Hoffman's" – contains a lot of family news.	Cecilia Seton, Emmitsburg	Feb, 12, 1810		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 16: 13
1810	2.184	Samuel W. Seton, New York "After such a wonderful long silence, what shall I say to you" – his brother, Edward, had visited Emmitsburg and Baltimore earlier.	Cecilia Seton, Emmitsburg	Feb. 18, 1810		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 16: 12
1810	2.185	Emma [Emily Seton], New York "As Mr. Dubourg is in town I cannot miss the opportunity of writing once more"	Cecilia Seton, Emmitsburg	Dated Feb. 19, 1809, but context indicates 1810		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 17: 16

1810	2.186	Julia Scott, Philadelphia "You have had some reason, dearest friend, to imagine that in the bustle of the world your Julia had forgotten you" – "What a fate has yours been, my friend – to be the death bed comforter of so many." – news of Julia's family.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Feb. 22, 1810		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 11: B25
1810	2.187	Cecilia Seton, Emmitsburg "The month of February past, and my tottering frame still stands" – she is no longer fearful of death which is coming soon.	Rev. Pierre Babade, Baltimore	March 1 [1810]	de Barberey (Code), 287	No original located
1810	2.188	Cecilia Seton, Emmitsburg "I cannot express to my soul's father my longing for the Holy Communion"	Rev. Pierre Babade, Baltimore	March 5 [1810]	de Barberey (Code), 288	No original located
1810	2.189	Edward A. Seton, New York "My long silence no doubt has astonished before the time"	Cecilia Seton, Emmitsburg	March 6, 1810		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 16: 1
1810	2.190	Samuel W. Seton, New York "Soeur de ma Coeur, most constant in my thoughts – tho' have it not in my power to evince this" -- he tried to see Rev. Dubourg in New York but did not.	Cecilia Seton, Emmitsburg	March 6, 1810		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 17: 7
1810	2.191	M. V. Renaudet, Baltimore "My dearest Anna you do not know what uneasiness I have endured on your account when I heard that you were very ill"	Anna Maria Seton, Emmitsburg	March 7, 1810		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4: 112

1810	2.192	Rev. John Carroll, Baltimore "You must pardon me for having suffered some opportunities" – He comments on the proposal to replace Elizabeth with Rose White as head of the community.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	[March 10, 1810]	NC 1:148; JCP 3:113-14	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 1: 43
1810	2.193	[Ethelinda] Agnes Seton, New York "I have this moment dear Anna received your Precious little crucifix"	Anna Maria Seton, Emmitsburg	March 10, 1810		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4: 111
1810	2.194	Rev. John Carroll, Baltimore "Having promised some additional lines to my letter of yesterday" – ownership of the property – Elizabeth must sacrifice herself and remain superior, the success of the community depends on this – David is coming to visit	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	March 11, 1810	Seton (2009), 234, fn. 116; Dubois, 55; JCP 3:114	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 1: 42
1810	2.195	Edward A. Seton, New York "I wrote you a few days ago no less than three letters if my memory speaks truth"	Cecilia Seton, Emmitsburg	March 12, 1810		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 16: 3
1810	2.196	Charlotte Seton Ogden, New York "Ought I not to be ashamed of myself, for never having written you a line" – her family is moving to upstate New York.	Cecilia Seton, Emmitsburg	March 12 [1810]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 16: 10
1810	2.197	Charlotte Seton Ogden, New York "I have this moment received a dear little note from Ned"	Cecilia Seton, Emmitsburg	March 13 [1810]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 16: 9
1810	2.198	Edward A. Seton, New York "This is a box of guava jelly I purchased long ago at Bookers"	Cecilia Seton, Emmitsburg	March 15, 1810		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 16: 2

1810	2.199	Mary Bayley Post, New York "I long to hear from you my beloved Sister" – she has attended a benefit concert at St. Peter's	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	March 16 [1810]	Seton (2009), 232, fn. 109; NC 1, 25	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 11: 8
1810	2.200	Rev. Pierre Babade, Baltimore [Orig. partly in French] "Your ch. received the letter brought by Mr. E." – offers spiritual advice – discusses future plans for serving the poor	Elizabeth Seton, Anna Maria Seton & Rebecca Seton, Emmitsburg	April 3, 1810		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 1: 67
1810	2.201	Catherine Seton, Emmitsburg "Oh when will I see you again and be in your dear arms" – Elizabeth is in Baltimore with the dying Cecilia.	Elizabeth Seton, Baltimore	n.d. [after April 11, 1810]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 9: 49b
1810	2.202	Rev. Pierre Babade, Baltimore [Orig. in French] "While reciting Psalm 62 this morning" – hopes she will soon join the spirits in heaven.	Cecilia Seton, Baltimore	[April 14, 1810]	RSM 2:84-85	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4: 7
1810	2.203	Rev. John Moranville, Baltimore "I pass over your reproaching me with my having been once unjust in my life."	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	April 14 [1810]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 2: 35
1810	2.204	Margaret C. George, Baltimore "I have just returned from the Superior's room" – she is hoping for a letter from Elizabeth.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	[April 1810]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 2: 18
1810	2.205	Eliza Sadler, New York "That my heart is with you in this new trial, you can well believe" – she is referring to the April 28 death of Cecilia Seton.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	May 4, 1810		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 11: B9

1810	2.206	Anna Maria Seton, Baltimore "Would you know how much already I long to see you" – Anna Maria had accompanied her mother to Baltimore with the dying Cecilia, and remained there until the summer.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	May 5, 1810	RSM 2:78-79, 87-91	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 9: 29
1810	2.207	Anna Maria Seton, Baltimore "Father [Babade] had forgotten to give me the first letter till just now"	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	May 7, 1810		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 9: 30
1810	2.208	Anna Maria Seton, Baltimore "Mrs. Burk did not go as I expected today"	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	May 8, 1810		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 9: 31
1810	2.209	Rev. Anthony Kohlmann, New York [Orig. in French] "I am infinitely aware of the attention which your prayer has had to inform me of the precious death of Cecilia Seton." On back in another hand in English: "I have made dearest mother these three little verses, , , "	Priest colleague	May 11, 1810		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 2: 28
1810	2.210	Mary Ann Butler, Emmitsburg "The lovely lines which in the affection of heart with which you have addressed them to me could not fail of giving me pleasure"	Anna Maria Seton, Baltimore	May 11, 1810		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4: 109
1810	2.211	Eliza Sadler, New York "you had not recd. my short letter and here your last was written, but I find in it the answer I wanted to mine" – she is "wishing Helen to be part of her family" – Helen Bayley married Samuel Craig, Eliza's brother, in 1814	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	May 19 [1810]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 11: B10

1810	2.212	Eliza Sadler, New York "I wrote you on the 19 th enclosing bank notes to the amount of four hundred dollars"	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	May 21, 1810		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 11: B11
1810	2.213	Anna Maria Seton, Baltimore "Again I must write, already it seems a long time since I heard from you" – she is tired of Baltimore.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	May 23, 1810	RSM 2:92-95	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 9: 32
1810	2.214	Anna Maria Seton, Baltimore "It has been very very long since I have heard from you"	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	May 30, 1810		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 9: 33
1810	2.215	Anna Maria Seton, Baltimore "I wrote last Thursday but I believe the person did not go as we expected"	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	June 4, 1810		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 9: 34
1810	2.216	Anna Maria Seton, Baltimore "there are good many people in Baltimore who love you most dearly"	Catherine & Rebecca Seton	June 4, 1810		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 9: 35
1810	2.217	Rev. Pierre Babade, Baltimore "Having arrived last night with the heart full" – reflections on the feast of the Sacred Heart (APSL dates this 1812 but context indicates otherwise.- Eds.)	Anna Maria Seton, Emmitsburg	June 5 [1810]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4: 10
1810	2.218	Anna Maria Seton, Baltimore "I think Father Trappist (the person I send these by) is determined he will take enough letters to you" – Bishop Carroll told her that Elizabeth would probably come down to Baltimore and not go back.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	June 10, 1810		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 9: 37

1810	2.219	S. Marie Bizeray, S. Voirin, S. Augustine Chauvin, Bordeaux [Orig. in French] "Since it is impossible for me to go to you" – she is writing about the French Daughters of Charity's proposed trip to America. They cannot yet leave France, but they hope to see the American sisters soon.	My good and dear Sisters	July 12, 1810	NC 1, 145; White (1869), 282-83	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 2: 13
1810	2.220	Soeur Marie Anne Bizeray "formula of Vows" of the Daughters of Charity [Orig. in French]		Addenda to above		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 2: 14
1810	2.221	Rev. John Carroll, Baltimore "Your esteemed favor of the 7 th still found me here" – he has not heard anything about change in governance of the sisterhood from Fr. David. He tells her she is "destined to be tried by disapprobation and humiliation, where you expected to meet confidence and tranquility."	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	July 18, 1810	Seton (2009), 236, fn. 126; JCP 3:119-20; NC 1, 143	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 1: 44
1810	2.222	Rev. John David, Baltimore "I hasten to write you a few lines by a wagon" – he plans to bring three candidates with him to Emmitsburg.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	July 18 [1810]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 2:10
1810	2.223	Matthias O'Conway, Philadelphia "I have received this afternoon from our dearest and best friend, the prioress of St. Joseph's"	Rebecca O'Conway, Emmitsburg	July 21, 1810	PFN, 439-441
1810	2.224	Anna Maria Seton, Emmitsburg "I take this opportunity to write to you"	Rev. Pierre Babade, Baltimore	n.d. [late July 1810]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 9: 38

1810	2.225	Anna Maria Seton, Emmitsburg "St. Anna" verse		n.d. [late July 1810]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 9: 36a
1810	2.226	Rev. William Dubourg, Baltimore "Just arrived in perfect health in company with our good bishop" – the Ursuline Sisters were staying in Baltimore on route to New Orleans.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	August 31 [1810]	Dubourg 1, 213, fn. 18	AMSV 100, 115, 1, 27
1810	2.227	Rev. William Dubourg, Baltimore "Mr. Flaget sends you the original letter of your holy father [St. Vincent]"	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Sept. 4, 1810	Dubourg 1, 218, fn. 36	AMSV 100, 115, 1, 25
1810	2.228	Rev. John Carroll, Washington, D.C. "I have been in this neighborhood more than five weeks" – David is to go with Flaget to Kentucky; some changes will ensue in the Sisters' government.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Sept. 11, 1810		AMSV 100, 115, 1, 3
1810	2.229	Robert Barry, Baltimore "I have received in course your esteemed lines of the 29 th " – talks about investing funds for her children	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Sept. 20, 1810		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4: 51
1810	2.230	Rev. William Dubourg, Baltimore (in Margaret George's handwriting) "A severe return of my rheumatism which has kept me confined to my room"	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Sept. 26, 1810	Dubourg 1, 219, fn. 40	AMSV 100, 115, 1, 26
1810	2.231	Rev. Pierre Babade, Baltimore "Dear Ver! Could I communicate to you the impression which makes on my mind the very name of the Archangel whose solemnity we celebrate today"	Cecilia O'Conway, Emmitsburg	Sept. 28, 1810		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4:121

1810	2.232	Rev. William Dubourg, Baltimore [Orig. in French] "With a hand almost paralyzed by continual pain" – he is making plans to spent the winter in Martinique	"Mon bon ami"	Nov. 15 [1810]	Dubourg 1, 226-227, excerpt	AMSV 100, 115, 1, 43
1810	2.233	Rev. John Dubois, Emmitsburg "Having had a bad night I decline going to attend our venerable bishop" – Asks her to detain Bishop Cheverus a bit on his visit to Emmitsburg	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Nov. 23, 1810	Seton (2009) 237, fn. 133; RSM 2:104-105; NC 1, 146	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 5: 17
1810	2.234	Rev. John Cheverus, en route to Conewago "The Bishop of Boston sends his thanks & respects"	Sisters of Charity, Emmitsburg	Nov. 24, 1810	Seton (2009), 237	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 1: 11a
1810	2.235	Margaret George, Baltimore "Having just returned from St. Mary's" – Fr. David has told her it was not practical at the time to send Sisters to Kentucky. He still hoped to open an institution for the sick in Baltimore with Rose White at the head. Babade had told Margaret that Carroll would send for Elizabeth.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Dec. 25, 1810	Dubourg 1, 226, fn. 61; Seton (2009), 238, fn. 136; RSM 2:107-109; NC 1, 146	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 2: 19
1810	2.236	Eliza Sadler, New York "Your letter was indeed welcome, my ever dear friend." – asks about Elizabeth's children; talks about Catherine Dupleix	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Dec. 28, 1810	Cheverus , 123	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 11: B12
1810	2.237	Joanna Barry, New York "I fear my valued friend, dear Mrs. Seton, long since set me down as an ungrateful woman"	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Dec. 29, 1810		APSL (formerly APSL) 2: 48

1810	2.238	Anna Maria Seton, Emmitsburg “...blessed Lord, O think Theresa, how good he is to you.” She gives Theresa advice before her First Communion. [Parts of this letter, copied by Elizabeth, also appear in CW 2: 741ff.]	Theresa Carrere	Dec. 1810		APSL (formerly APSL) 9: 36
1810	2.239	“Annina’s Decury” Rules “1 st strict silence till morning prayers” – rules for the young students at St. Joseph’s who were under Anna Maria’s charge		n.d. [1810]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 3: 66
1810	2.240	Anna Maria Seton, Emmitsburg Daily Schedule at St. Joseph’s “The first thing in the morning ½ an hour studies”		n.d. [1810]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 9: 40
1810	2.241	Anna Maria Seton, Emmitsburg Pious Drawing	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	n.d. [1810]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 9: 36b
1810	2.242	Anna Maria Seton, Emmitsburg “Parent’s Prayer” – “When we by faith behold the cross”		n.d. [1810]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 3: 25,8
1810	2.243	Anna Maria Seton, Emmitsburg “I know you will excuse the liberty I take”	Rev. Pierre Babade, Baltimore	n.d. [1810]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 9: 39
1810	2.244	Anna Maria Seton, Emmitsburg “First Writing Exercise”		n.d. [1810]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 9: 40a

1811
1811	2.245	Rev. John Cheverus, Boston "I was gone from New York when your kind letter was received by the good Mr. Kohlman" – Cheverus agrees with Dubois that the Sisters should not be under the management of the French Daughters -- advises Elizabeth to consult with Dubois – will soon send Bérulle's History of the French Clergy & other books.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Jan. 4, 1811	Cheverus , 168; Seton (2009), 221, fn. 56	AMSV 100, 115, 1, 13
1811	2.246	Catherine Seton, Emmitsburg – Resolutions "With thy grace my God will I dedicate my first thoughts to thee when I awake in the morning"		Jan. 13, 1811		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 9: 62
1811	2.247	Mary Carrere, Emmitsburg "Am I not a happy child I am going to receive tomorrow our dearest Jesus"	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	n.d. [early 1811]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 3: 19
1811	2.248	Mary Josephine Gartland, Emmitsburg "Communion: Awake my soul thy Jesus' voice" – a poem on Holy Communion	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	n.d. [early 1811]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 3: 88,1
1811	2.249	Rebecca Seton, Emmitsburg "Resolutions" and Memorandum		n.d. [Feb. 1811]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 9: 42h
1811	2.250	Catherine Seton, Emmitsburg Catherine and Rebecca wrote numerous short notes to each other and to classmates as well as copying verses and prayers.	Rebecca Seton, Emmitsburg	n.d. [Feb. 1811]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 3: 25,7; 9: 48d; 9: 49c; 9: 51a; 9: 51b

1811	2.251	Julia Scott, Philadelphia "Your letter of the 1 st February... I received only yesterday the 13 th " – she encloses money for Elizabeth's family – comments that Louisa Caton is staying with her	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Feb. 14, 1811		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 11: B26
1811	2.252	Barclay Bayley, Fellowship Hall "My dear Sis, As my trembling hand impresses on paper that fond appellation" – refers to Harriet and his sadness over her death – hopes to return to America soon	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Feb. 22, 1811		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 7: 83
1811	2.253	Rev. John David, Baltimore "I am sorry to hear of your being so much indisposed" – spiritual advice for Lent – he expects to send for Rose White	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Feb. 23, 1811	Dubourg 1, 243, fn. 27; Seton (2009), 238, fn. 137; 263, fn. 57	AMSV 100, 115, 1, 19
1811	2.254	Antonio Filicchi, Leghorn "The Rev. N. Zocchi delivered unto me sometime in September last your very acceptable letters" – he and his brother will continue to provide financial support for her family and the community	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	March 29, 1811		No original located AMSV A 111 103 (Copy)
1811		Rev. William Dubourg, Martinique He had recruited three women for Emmitsburg – Madeleine Guerin, Adele Salva, and Louise Rogers	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	April 1811	Dubourg 1, 229, fn. 67 (This letter no longer exists; it is referred to in a July 3, 1811 letter of Dubourg.)	No original located

1811	2.255	Joanna Barry, Baltimore "I fear my want of punctuality in correspondence have made you forget your once loved Mrs. B." – news of mutual acquaintances	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	May 23, 1811	Seton (2009), 242, fn. 158	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 2:49
1811	2.256	Mary Bayley Post, New York "I see you estimate my silence as I would have you" – mentions Uncle William Bayley's death – family news	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	June 10 [1811]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 11: 11
1811	2.257	Rev. John David, Bardstown, Kentucky [Orig. in French] "I had forgotten to speak to you in my letters of a very interesting subject" – he is determined to form a society of virtuous girls and asks for a copy of the Rule of the Sisters of Charity	Rev. Simon Bruté, Emmitsburg	July 6, [1811]		UNDA II-3-n
1811	2.258	Rev. William Dubourg, Baltimore "Behold I am just arrived, and what will please if not surprise you I sit down to write" – mentions two novices [Louise Rogers and Adele Salva] Dubourg returned to Baltimore from Martinique July 6, 1811 [acc. to Tessier's Journal], or July 10, according to Dubourg 1, 232.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	July 1811 [Before July 10]	Dubourg 1, 233, fn. 67; Seton (2009), 216, fn. 32; NC 1, 151	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 2: 3
1811	2.259	Marie Françoise Chatard, Baltimore [Orig. in French] "I am indeed vexed, my dear Mother, to be unable to accompany the ladies who will deliver my letter to you."	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	July 14 and 19, 1811	Seton (2009), 292, fn. 46	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4: 76

1811	2.260	Sulpician Register "M. Dubourg back since the 9 th from Martinique" – Dubourg reported on his trip – he wants an understanding with Dubois on the fundamental object of the Sisters' institution		July 16, 1811	Dubourg 1, 235, fn. 6; 266-67, fn. 22 & 23	AAB, AASUS Sulpician Register, 51 SAB, RG 1, Box 11
1811	2.261	Rev. John Carroll, Baltimore "Shall I confess that I am deeply humiliated at being called on to give a final sanction to a rule of conduct and plan of religious government" This letter is also printed in CW II: 745, #A-6.83a. For the text of the Rule that Carroll approved, see CW IIIb: 499 ff., #A-12.3	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Sept. 11, 1811	Fox, 32-33; Seton (2009), 220, fn. 55; 222, fn. 60; 225, fn. 69; 241, fn. 153; 287, fn. 19; NC 1, 152	AMSV 100, 115, 1, 4
1811	2.262	Guy Carleton Bayley, Haerlem, New York "You must be naturally led to conclude that I have almost, if not entirely forgotten you" – expresses sympathy on the death of Harriet and Cecilia Seton – news of his siblings (Elizabeth's half-brothers and sisters)	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Sept. 23, 1811		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 2: 96
1811	2.263	Rev. Benedict Flaget, Bardstown "May the peace of our Lord be with you" – Excerpt re: Daughters who were to come from France – much of the letter discusses the development of the diocese of Bardstown	Rev. Simon Bruté, Baltimore	Oct. 17, 1811	Doyle, 37, fn. 27; Seton (2009), 223, fn. 62	UNDA II-3-n
1811	2.264	Sulpician Register "The Superior [Tessier] was present at this Monday meeting because he is back from Emmitsburg." – Sisters are awaiting the Constitution that is now in Bishop Carroll's hands. Superior signed contracts with the Elder family about the Emmitsburg property.		Oct. 21, 1811		AAB, AASUS Sulpician Register, 51 SAB, RG 1, Box 11

1811	2.265	P. Boutan, New York [Orig. in French] "Louis M. Bertrand sent you in the month of August a letter" - On envelope in French: "note re: French sisters coming in 1811"	Rev. Simon Bruté, Baltimore	Oct. 24, 1811	de Barberey (Code), 458, fn. 13	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 2: 15,1
1811	2.266	Rev. John David, Bardstown "I am not at all sure, my beloved brother, that we abide in silence in the Sacred Hearts" – He requests the Sisters of Charity rule from Emmitsburg for use by the community of Sisters that he is founding.	Rev. Simon Bruté, Baltimore	Nov. 3, 1811		UNDA II-2-n
1811	2.267	Rev. Anthony Kohlmann, New York "I am requested by a respectable Irish lady" [Mrs. Corish] – Kohlmann asks for information about her daughters, Camilla and Cecilia, being educated at St. Joseph's. Mrs. Corish is interested in accompanying them to help with teaching.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Nov. 14, 1811	Seton (2009), 215, fn. 26; NC 1, 154	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 2: 29
1811	2.268	Rev. John Carroll, Baltimore "On the 14 th only did I receive your much esteemed favor of the 3 rd " – He is sorry to hear of Anna Maria's suffering. He refers to an edifying letter he received from Rose White, and also to a $500 legacy of Ann Barry left to Elizabeth, and a piano and music left to Catherine or Rebecca.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsbug	Nov. 18, 1811	Seton (2009), 286, note h [former edition: 211, fn. 16]	AMSV 100, 115, 1, 5
1811	2.269	Mary Bayley Post, New York "Dearest Sister my spirit seeks you – could I but see you what a gratification it would be to me." – news of her family – Barclay Bayley has died – she is happy that Elizabeth is happy.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Dec. 8, 1811	Seton (2009), 252, fn. 8	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 11: 12

1811	2.270	Cecilia O’Conway, Emmitsburg “Last Wednesday I received your tender letter with the little curiosity enclosed” – She is happy to be among Sisters who love God and serve humanity.	Matthias and Rebecca O’Conway, Philadelphia	Dec. 12, 1811		PAHRC MS 21 553 (3) acc. 3358
1811	2.271	Rev. John Carroll, Baltimore "I had great objections to the removal of Mr. Bruté from the Seminary" - Regarding the Rule: corrected copy of adapted rules should be read to sisters for their adoption.	Rev. John Dubois, Emmitsburg	Dec. 22, 1811	JCP 3:165; NC 1, 157-58	AAB, AASMSU
1811	2.272	Anna Maria Seton, Emmitsburg "My soul's dearest mother, oh how I love you" – speaks of being separated for a time but to be united in eternity	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Dec. 25, 1811	RSM 2:119-120	No original located
1811	2.273	Catherine Dupleix, New York “As I must give up all hope for the present of seeing you, at least for some months” – asks after Elizabeth’s children – she is uncertain about becoming a Catholic	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Dec. 30, 1811	Seton (2009), 252, fn. 9; 265, fn. 64	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 11: B35
1811	2.274	Ellen Wiseman, Emmitsburg “An act of love – my beloved is mine and I am his” – pious reflection	Anna Maria Seton, Emmitsburg	Dec. 1811		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4: 114
1811/12	2.275	Rev. John Dubourg "The Rev. Mr. Bruté is going to visit you." – compares Elizabeth to the long-suffering mother of the Maccabees or Mary at the foot of the cross – he affirms his devotion to their friendship and the work of the community	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Between Dec. 22, 1811 and Jan. 6, 1812	Dubourg 1, 236-37, fn. 8	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 2: 2

1812
1812	2.276	Charlotte Smith[Nelson] "How is our dear Anna" – concern and love for her friend Anna Maria Seton	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Jan. 12, 1812		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 3: 74
1812	2.277	Rev. Pierre Babade, Baltimore "I find no expressions to tell you what my joy was" – he received a letter from her	Catherine Seton, Emmitsburg	Jan. 14, 1812		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4: 38
1812	2.278	Rev. John Carroll & Rev. John Tessier, Baltimore Official confirmation of Rules & Constitutions		Jan. 17, 1812	NC 1, 158; de Barberey (Code), 328-29; Seton (2009), 225, fn. 71	No original located
1812	2.279	Rev. John Cheverus, Boston "I would have written sooner had not your kind letter of October 28 th led me to expect another" – He thought it had been concluded that the Sisters from France would form a separate establishment. It is not appropriate for him to advise her on matters of community government. He dissuades her from a begging tour and hopes someone will give or lend her the money she needs.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Jan 20, 1812	Cheverus , 168; Seton (2009), 217, fn. 36	AMSV 100, 115, 1, 14
1812	2.280	Rev. John Carroll, Baltimore "Whilst the situation of your dear Anna Maria fills with sorrow the hearts of your and her friends" – Constitutions have been approved by the community – elections will take place soon.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Jan. 20, 1812		AMSV 100, 115, 1, 6
1812	2.281	Richard Seton, Emmitsburg Verse "Go beauteous Rose, to lovely Anna prove"	Anna Maria Seton, Emmitsburg	n.d. [end of Jan. 1812]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4: 105

1812	2.282	Eliza Grim, New York "As I have now a private opportunity of writing you" – she recounts a fire in New York.	Anna Maria Seton, Emmitsburg	n.d. [end of Jan. 1812]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4: 106
1812	2.283	Marie Françoise Chatard, Baltimore [Orig. in French] "Your letter, my dear mother, conveys to me some news" – She regrets that she cannot be closer to Elizabeth. She has learned of Rebecca's fall that injured her hip.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Jan. 21, 1812		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4: 78
1812	2.284	Julia Scott, Philadelphia "What do you do with yourself in the mountains, my dear friend" – She has worries about her family. She hopes Anna Maria will visit when the weather becomes milder.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Jan. 27, 1812		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 11: B27
1812	2.285	Robert G. Harper, Washington "It was not till yesterday Madam, that I had the pleasure of receiving at this place your letter of the 10 th and 24th of January."	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Feb. 6, 1812		HSP
1812	2.286	Mary Bayley Post, New York "My dearest Sister the interesting account of your situation with your dear children" – She is worried about Elizabeth's children. She hopes Anna Maria will visit, and hopes to see Elizabeth by the end of May – other news of her family	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Feb. 7, 1812		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 11: 9
1812	2.287	Rev. Anthony Kohlmann, New York " Your kind favor should have been answered long since" – Mrs. Corish will not come till next spring – her daughter wishes to join the community	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Feb. 11, 1812		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 2:30

1812	2.288	Rev. John Cheverus, Boston "Your truly moving and edifying letter of the 12 th " – he expects Anna Maria's imminent death	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Feb. 26, 1812	Seton (2009), 254, fn. 18	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 1: 12
1812	2.289	Rev. John Carroll, Baltimore "Our valuable and amiable friend M. Bruté has been with me this evening" – He is amazed that Anna Maria is still alive. He asks about Margaret George and her mother since they moved to Emmitsburg.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	March 10, 1812		AMSV 100, 115, 1, 7
1812	2.290	Anna Maria Seton, Emmitsburg "Consecration at the foot of the Cross"		March 12, 1812		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 9: 40b
1812	2.291	Charlotte Smith [Nelson] "I received your letter yesterday telling me of our sweet angel's departure"	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	March 23, 1812	Seton (2009), 291, fn. 41	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 3: 73
1812	2.292	Rev. Michael Hurley, Philadelphia "To tell you that I am a bad correspondent would be to tell you what you know from experience" – re lost letters of Elizabeth to Joanna Barry – Elizabeth's trials and here despondency with recent loss	Robert Barry, Baltimore	March 31, 1812	Ennis, 135	AAB, AASMSU 11A-R4
1812	2.293	Rev. Pierre Babade, Baltimore "I avail myself of the good opportunity of Mr. Tessier's going to the mountain" – Babade is not allowed to go to St. Joseph's himself to console Elizabeth.	Catherine Seton, Emmitsburg	April 3, 1812		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4: 39

1812	2.294	Rev. William Dubourg, Baltimore "The Rev. Mr. Tessier set out so abruptly that he was gone" – Tessier went to Emmitsburg. Dubourg acquired about 200 religious images for the pupils and the Sisters.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	April 7, 1812	Seton (2009), 241, fn. 152; Dubourg 1, 239-40, fn. 16	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 2: 4
1812	2.295	Eliza Sadler, New York "The letter I have been so long expecting has at length come" – She is sad at news of Anna Maria's death, gives news of people in New York, comments on Elizabeth's children.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	April 17, 1812	Seton (2009), 255, fn. 22	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 11: B13
1812	2.296	Samuel W. Seton, New York "I have a safe and certain conveyance to Emmitsburg for my letter" – expresses care and concern for her	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	May 6, 1812		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 17: 8
1812	2.297	Rev. John Dubois, Emmitsburg [Orig. in French] "Just a few words, my dear little brother" – he feels inadequate about directing Elizabeth in her grief over the death of Anna Maria. A St. Francis de Sales is needed to direct a potential saint (like Elizabeth). He warns Bruté against becoming "too personal, . . . too attached"; he expresses his affection for Bruté warmly and suggests how to direct Elizabeth. Dubois feels unequal to it.	Rev. Simon Bruté, Baltimore	May 7, 1812	Seton (2009), 255, fn. 23, 24; Dubois , 66	AMSMU
1812	2.298	Mary Bayley Post, New York "I left you dear sister, with sensations I cannot describe. It seemed to me that I had actually seen an order of beings who had nothing to do with the ordinary cares of this life" – She gives news of her return trip to New York.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	May 14 [1812]	NC 1, 161	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 11: 16

1812	2.299	Mary Bayley Post, New York "Well did I know soon as I saw my little favourite flower from whence it had been culled" – She met Bishop John Henry Hobart.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	June 4, 1812	Seton (2009), 255, fn. 21; RSM 2:135	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 11: 17
1812	2.300	Rev. Pierre Babade, Baltimore "I cannot forbear addressing you some few words on the subject of this feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus"	Catherine Seton, Emmitsburg	June 4, 1812		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4: 40
1812	2.301	Maria Murphy Burke, Emmitsburg "This little note will give you as much pleasure as it gives me" – comments on her state of soul; she is following his advice	Rev. Pierre Babade, Baltimore	n.d. [1812]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4: 11
1812	2.302	Rev. Simon Bruté, Emmitsburg [Orig. in French] "10 o'clock at the Mountain"—asks for a copy of Anna's rules for her Decury and other writings of hers	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	June 25, 1812	Seton (2009), 313, fn. 11	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 7-3-1-2: A12
1812	2.303	Charlotte [Smith] Nelson, Rose White, et al., Winchester, Maryland "4 o'clock and we have done dinner which was prepared in a private room" – probably returning from a trip to Baltimore	Elizabeth, Josephine and Rebecca Seton, Emmitsburg	[summer 1812]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 2: 92
1812	2.304	Marie Françoise Chatard, Baltimore "Our dear Rebecca is with us since the evening of the day before yesterday" – Dr. Chatard has examined her after her fall and found nothing broken.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	June 27, 1812	Seton (2009), 325, fn. 76	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4: 77

1812	2.305	Catherine Seton, Emmitsburg "If you only knew how much your darling Sister wishes to see you"	Rebecca Seton, Baltimore	[1812]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 11: B43
1812	2.306	Matthias O'Conway, Philadelphia "In the confidence that you are willing to do an act of charity" – He asks Elizabeth to tell Cecilia O'Conway that her brother James has been killed in battle.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	July 25, 1812		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 2: 22
1812	2.307	Rev. Simon Bruté "I am trying to learn practically my English" – He has said Mass and tried to preach in six different places on the Eastern Shore of Maryland.	Rev. Benedict Flaget	[Summer, 1812]	Seton (2009), 314, fn. 20	No original located
1812	2.308	Rev. Simon Bruté, Eastern Shore "I first saw Mother [Seton] in 1811. She read with me the Following of Christ to form my English pronunciation."	Charlotte Melmoth, New York	Aug. 1, 1812	Seton (2009), 311, fn. 2	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 7-3-1-3: B273
1812	2.309	Rev. Louis Dubourg, Conewago, Pennsylvania He has written Tessier asking that Bruté be sent to help Dubois in Emmitsburg, especially with the direction of the Sisters.	Rev. Simon Bruté	Aug. 28, 1812	Seton (2009), 315, fn. 24; Dubois 68	UNDA II-3-n
1812	2.310	Rev. Simon Bruté [Orig. in French] "I spoke again to a congregation so rough, so sad, so boisterous that you would have suffered, Mother of charity, to have heard me" - He has been serving in parishes on the Eastern Shore of Maryland.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	"Sunday, 2 o' clock" [late summer 1812]	Seton (2009), 315, fn. 23	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 7-3-1-2: A41

1812	2.311	Victoire Dubourg Fournier, Baltimore [Orig. in French] "It is with greatest pleasure, my good and dear mother, that I saw Mgr. Dubois" – news of Baltimore – Dubourg is preparing to leave for New Orleans.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Sept. 8, 1812		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 2: 77
1812	2.312	Rev. John Carroll, Rock Creek, Washington, D.C. "You have then at length yielded to Mr. Dubois' persevering importunity" – He expresses annoyance about Bruté's appointment to be "a director of some devout women."	Rev. John Tessier, Baltimore	Sept. 13, 1812	Dubourg 1, 238, fn. 13; Dubois , 68; JCP 3:199	AAB, AASUS
1812	2.313	Rev. Simon Bruté, Queenstown, Queen Ann County, Maryland	Charlotte Melmoth, New York	Sept. 15, 1812	Seton (2009), 314, fn. 22	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 7-3-1-3: B208
1812	2.314	Cecilia O'Conway, Emmitsburg "Why are you so silent, surely your hearts are not buried in melancholy on the departure of your beloved James"	Matthias and Rebecca O'Conway, Philadelphia	Sept. 23, 1812		PAHRC MS 21, 553 (3), acc. 3358
1812	2.315	Marie Françoise Chatard, Baltimore "It has been a very long time, my loving Mother, that I wished to write you" – She comments on Rebecca's suffering and has concerns about her son Henry's health. She has heard from both Rev. Dubois and Rev. Bruté.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Oct. 15, 1812		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4: 79
1812	2.316	Rev. John Dubois, Emmitsburg "Our hearts, dear mother, do not know how to stop" – discussion about Mrs. Grim and her family coming to Emmitsburg	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Oct. 20, 1812		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 5: 20

1812	2.317	Eliza Sadler, New York "Yours is a strange, irregular post" – news about family and acquaintances – intimates Catherine Dupleix has become a Catholic	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Oct. 29, 1812	Seton (2009), 265, fn. 65	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 11: B14
1812	2.318	Mary Bayley Post, New York "Beloved Sister I trust you have ... received some of the many letters I have written to you" – talks of the marriage of Richard Bayley and Catherine White and other family news	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Nov. 2, 1812		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 11: 10
1812	2.319	Cecilia O'Conway, Emmitsburg "I cannot deny my being uneasy on account of your silence" – tells of the deaths of a young seminarian, John Delaney, and Sister Maria Murphy who died October 15.	Matthias O'Conway, Philadelphia	Early Nov. [1812]	PFN , 443-444	PAHRC MS 21, 553 (3), acc. 3358
1812	2.320	Victoire Dubourg Fournier, Baltimore [Orig. in French] "I owe you many excuses for my long silences, my dear Mother" – her brother, Rev. Dubourg, has left for New Orleans	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Nov. 4, 1812	Dubourg 1, 269-70, fn. 31	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 2: 78
1812	2.321	Sarah Cauffman, Philadelphia "How favored my dear mother are the inhabitants of St. Joseph's" – comments on Anna Maria's death – speaks of her friend Ellen Wiseman	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Nov. 4, 1812		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 3: 75
1812	3.322	Rev. John Grassi, Georgetown "I am very sorry for having made no mention in my letter" – inquires about sending Mary Patton and other Patton children to St. Joseph's for their education – closing paragraph in French	Rev. Simon Bruté, Emmitsburg	Nov. 17, 1812		UNDA II-3-N

1812	2.323	Rev. Simon Bruté, Emmitsburg He is sending ideas with spaces in between for her to “blot out and write down better, principally when this poor French-English will be quite unamendable.”	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Nov. 20, 1812	Seton (2009), 316, fn. 30	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 13: 1
1812	2.324	Rev. Simon Bruté, Emmitsburg “O my mother – no words – you will have plenty there” – he asks her to make copies to be sent to Bishop Flaget and Rev. David for the seminarians in Bardstown	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	[early Dec. 1812]	Seton (2009), 316, fn. 31	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 7-3-1-3:B186
1812	2.325	Rev. Simon Bruté, Emmitsburg Part in French Reflection on Exodus 32 “But my face thou canst not see’ ... O Jesus when we will see?”		Dec. 2 [1812]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 13:104
1812	2.326	Ellen Wiseman, Philadelphia “How neglectful have I been in not answering your letter” – She is spending Christmas in Philadelphia.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Dec. 7 [1812]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 2: 85
1812	2.327	Cecilia O’Conway, Emmitsburg “Your little sweet note so candidly expresses the desires of your tender heart” – advice to Rebecca in preparing for her First Communion	Rebecca Seton, Emmitsburg	[before Christmas 1812]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4: 120
	2.328	Rev. John Dubois, Emmitsburg Sisters of Charity – Distribution of the time at the house of St. Joseph, Winter				APSL (formerly ASJPH) 5: 4
	2.329	Rev. John Dubois, Emmitsburg Sisters of Charity – Distribution of time [Summer]				APSL (formerly ASJPH) 5: 5

	2.330	Rev. John Dubois, Emmitsburg Sisters of Charity – Distribution of the time on some particular days				APSL (formerly ASJPH) 5: 6
		Rev. John Dubois, Emmitsburg Sisters of Charity – Distribution of external employments at St. Joseph’s school department (This document is also printed in CW 3b, 127ff., #12.9.)				APSL (formerly ASJPH) 5: 7
	2.331	Rev. John Dubois, Emmitsburg Sisters of Charity 3d department housekeeping				APSL (formerly ASJPH) 5: 8
	2.332	Rev. John Dubois, Emmitsburg Sisters of Charity – schools at St. Joseph’s (Superintendence, tuition, policies)				APSL (formerly ASJPH) 5: 9
	2.333	Rev. John Dubois, Emmitsburg Sisters of Charity – regulations for the School at St. Joseph’s (Hourly School Schedule)				APSL(formerly ASJPH) 5: 10
	2.334	Rev. John Dubois, Emmitsburg Sisters of Charity – Rules for the School in the Winter (Hourly School Schedule)				APSL (formerly ASJPH) 5: 11
	2.335	Rev. John Dubois, Emmitsburg Sisters of Charity – Sundays and Holydays [School] (Directives for the students)				APSL (formerly ASJPH) 5: 12
	2.336	Rev. John Dubois, Emmitsburg [Orig. partly in French] “School” and regulations for the Sisters				APSL (formerly ASJPH) 5: 13
		Rev. John Dubois, Emmitsburg				APSL (formerly ASJPH)

		[in the handwriting of Cecilia O'Conway] Sisters of Charity – Provisional Regulations for the St. Joseph Sisters (This document is also printed in CW 2, 737ff., #A-6.4a)				5: 14
		Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg [with notation by Bruté] Regulations of the School of St. Joseph about 1812 (Sisters Teaching Assignments) (This document is also printed in CW 3b, 124ff., #12.8.)				APSL (formerly ASJPH) 5: 15
1813
1813	2.337	Marie Françoise Chatard, Baltimore [Orig. in French] "Your two letters my kind mother, have given me indeed much pleasure" – she expresses concern for Rebecca's suffering – her son Frederick is close to death.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Jan. 11, 1813		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4: 81
1813	2.338	Rev. Anthony Kohlmann, New York "Having nothing to offer in exaltation [explanation] of my long silence" – Captain Dupleix, back in New York, may object to his wife's becoming a Catholic	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Jan. 17, 1813	Seton (2009) 265, fn. 66; NC 1, 165	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 2: 31

1813	2.339	Marie Françoise Chatard, Baltimore [Orig. in French] "How the lovely peace of your dear Sisters is to be envied!"	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Jan. 29, 1813	Seton (2009) 326, fn. 81	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4: 82
1813	2.340	Rebecca Seton – memorandum re: receiving Communion		Feb. 1813	RSM 2:140-141	No original located
1813	2.341	Marie Françoise Chatard, Baltimore [Orig. in French] "I thank the Supreme Being for your kindness to my children" – she is worried about her son Henry	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	March 5, [1813]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4: 85
1813	2.342	Marie Françoise Chatard, Baltimore [Orig. in French] "What pleasure your last letter gave me, my dear Mother"	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	April, 19, 1813		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4: 83
1813	2.343	Rev. Simon Bruté, Emmitsburg [Orig. in French] Spiritual thoughts at Annina's grave "This morning ...at a quarter past 5 at Annina's grave"		July 6, 1813	RSM 2:144; NC 1, 166	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 13
1813	2.344	Rev. John David, Bardstown "It has been quite a long time since I had the pleasure of writing to you" – He talks about the beginnings of the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth, David needs a copy of the Emmitsburg rule.	Rev. Simon Bruté, Emmitsburg	July 12, 1813		UNDA II-3-N

1813	2.345	Margaret George, Emmitsburg, with note from Catherine Seton (Margaret) "My dear Eliza has not fulfilled her promise of writing by Sister Rose" (Catherine) "I take this opportunity of writing a little word to you in Sister Margaret's letter"	Eliza Wyse, Baltimore	July 12, 1813		AMSJ A 211 001
1813	2.346	Rev. Benedict Flaget, Bardstown [Orig. in French] "I am taking advantage of Thomas Harris' return" – He is waiting for the Rule from Emmitsburg, would like Sr. Fanny Jordan or Mrs. George to take charge	Rev. Simon Bruté, Emmitsburg	July 13, 1813	Doyle, 37, fn. 27	UNDA II-3-N
1813	2.347	Mary Bayley Post, New York "I have the pleasure at last of hearing from you dear Sister."	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	July 16, 1813	Seton (2009) 265, fn. 67	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 11: 18
1813	2.348	Vows of Sr. Margaret George Sisters, including Elizabeth Seton, ended their novitiate and made their vows for the first time in "the Society of the Sisters of Charity in the United States of America"		[July 19, 1813]		AMSJ A 211 043
1813	2.349	Rev. Anthony Kohlmann, New York "I wish it were in my power to rejoice your pious & compassionate heart"	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	July 19, 1813		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 2: 32
1813	2.350	Rev. Pierre Babade [Orig. in French] "I hope that the spirit of St. Vincent de Paul will have descended on you in great abundance during this retreat"	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	July 21, 1813	Seton (2009) 326, fn. 82	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 1: 68

1813	2.351	Rev. William Dubourg	Rev. Simon Bruté, Emmitsburg	Sept. 1, 1813	Dubourg 1, 294, fn. 44	UNDA
1813	2.352	Rev. John Carroll, Rock Creek "I am now at small distance from Washington" – he mentions Margaret George and Fanny Jordan – his grandniece Jane Brent is coming as a student to Emmitsburg	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Sept. 5, 1813	Seton (2009) 287, fn. 21; JCP , 3: 230	UNDA
1813	2.353	Rev. John David, Bardstown "Monsieur and I were taking a walk in our woods together" – he is still waiting for the Rule, still asking for Rose or Fanny or Kit	Rev. Simon Bruté, Emmitsburg	Sept. 7, 1813	Doyle, 37, fn. 27	UNDA II-3-N
1813	2.354	Rev. Benedict Flaget, Bardstown "Hasten to have sent us the rules requested for so long a time."	Rev. Simon Bruté, Emmitsburg	Sept. 21, 1813	Seton (2009), 259	UNDA
1813	2.355	Rev. Pierre Babade, Baltimore "having heard of the arrival here in town of Mrs. Dupleix who is on her journey to St. Joseph's"	Catherine Seton, Emmitsburg	Sept. 24, 1813		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4: 41
1813	2.356	Rev. Pierre Babade, Baltimore "By your last I perceive that the fear of death and judgment has pierced through your flesh"	Rebecca Seton, Emmitsburg	Sept. 26, 1813		UNDA II-1-a
1813	2.357	Henrietta Dukehart, Baltimore "I take this opportunity of writing to you, I wish to know the rules of your happy convent"	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Sept. 1813		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4: 75

1813	2.358	Joseph O'Conway, Philadelphia "It was our most hearty expectation to have written before this day" – Mrs. O'Conway is not well.	Cecilia O'Conway, Emmitsburg	Sept. 28, 1813		PAHRC MS 21, 553 (3) acc. 3358
1813	2.359	Cecilia O'Conway, Emmitsburg Diary (Chronology)		June 22, 1809-Oct. 27, 1813		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 4:118, 9
1813	2.360	Julia Scott, Philadelphia "I have delayed writing so long that I can delay no longer" – she is concerned about the fate of her daughter, Maria, who is with child.	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Nov. 23, 1813	Seton (2009) 326, fn. 84	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 11: B28
1813	2.361	Rev. Simon Bruté, Emmitsburg "O happy mother, already three of your dear daughters in heaven." – buried in the delightful little wood, happy little corner of the world." [the three deceased are Anna Maria Seton, Maria Murphy, and Ellen Thompson.]	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	After 11/28/13	NC 1,169	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 13: 11
1813	2.362	Rev. Simon Bruté, Emmitsburg "Helena birth's day True Piety pag. 227"	Probably Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	Late 1813/early 1814		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 7-3-1-2
1813	2.363	Rev. Simon Bruté, Emmitsburg "My Mother what shall I do" – he recommends works of St. Francis of Assisi and St. Francis de Sales	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	[end of 1813]	Seton (2009), 317, fn. 37; 319, fn. 44.	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 7-3-1-2: B52

1813	2.364	Rev. Simon Bruté, Emmitsburg Partly in French “I read with a great pleasure the chapter 25 of Exodus” – mentions the deceased Sisters Annina, Maria, Cecilia, Magdalen	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	[end of 1813]	Seton (2009), 313, fn. 17	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 7-3-1-2:B59
1813	2.365	Rev. Simon Bruté, Emmitsburg “Eternity – Eternity When we consider what a mere point this world is” – speaks of her celestial commission as “mother of the daughters of charity”	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	[end of 1813]	Seton (2009), 314, fn. 18.	APSL (formerly ASHPH) 7-3-1-2:B61
1813	2.366	Rev. Simon Bruté, Emmitsburg “You see I am very obedient – and that is all”	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	[end of 1813]	Seton (2009), 319, fn. 46.	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 7-3-1-2:B62
1813	2.367	Rev. Simon Bruté, Emmitsburg “He is all – my eyes fill with tears my heart swells” – considers Elizabeth like his own mother	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	[end of 1813]	Seton (2009), 312, fn. 7.	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 7-3-1-3:B164
1813	2.368	Rev. Simon Bruté, Emmitsburg “My Mother, like you dropped...???”	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	[end of 1813]	Seton (2009), 390, fn. 45.	APSL (formerly ASJPH) 7-3-1-3:B169
1813	2.369	Rev. Simon Bruté, Emmitsburg “Monday, 8 o’clock, St. Elizabeth” – comments on several psalms, using the Bible she lent him earlier	Elizabeth Seton, Emmitsburg	[end of 1813]		APSL (formerly ASJPH) 13:159