The DePaul Journal for Social Justice (ISSN 2151-3090) promotes discussion of policy issues, encourages submissions of interdisciplinary work and expands student opportunities for learning. The discussions offer legal professionals, practitioners, community-based leaders, academics and students, the opportunity to voice their concerns, share their unique experiences, offer radical viewpoints and propose solutions. These Journal articles reflect the experiences of the authors and the thought-provoking commentaries inspire readers. The Journal explores alternative publication formats and expands content options to broaden access and better engage readers.

The DePaul Journal for Social Justice welcomes the submission of articles written by admitted practitioners and other professionals, students and academics at universities. Submissions for publication in the DePaul Journal for Social Justice are accepted on a rolling basis through Espresso, <http://law.bepress.com/expresso/>. The editorial board, on recommendation of peer reviewers and with the advice of the Journal membership, selects content by majority vote.

Manuscripts submitted for publication in the DePaul Journal for Social Justice must be typed and double spaced with footnotes appended to the main body of the article. Send manuscripts to the editorial offices at 25 E. Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois 60604-2287.

Citations must conform to The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (Columbia Law Review Ass'n et al. eds. 18th ed. 2005).

Although the DePaul Journal for Social Justice gives great deference to an author's work, the Journal retains the right to determine the final published form of all articles.

The opinions expressed in the articles are those of the various authors. Except as otherwise provided, DePaul Journal for Social Justice permits any individual or organization to photocopy any article or other piece in this publication, provided that: (1) copies are distributed at or below cost; (2) the author and Journal are prominently identified on the first page; (3) proper notice of copyright is affixed to each copy; and (4) all other applicable laws and regulations are followed. DePaul Journal for Social Justice reserves all other rights.
