Event Recaps

Drink Tasting » There is a secret to making a great drink, and thanks to a Nov. 7 cocktail tasting at Latinicity in the heart of the Loop, some lucky alumni now know it! Alumni sampled some of the food hall and lounge's most popular drinks. Then, Latinicity bartenders led drink-making demonstrations to teach alumni how to re-create the classic cocktails at home.

Holiday Brunches » On Dec. 9, alumni and friends in Arizona, New York City, Southern California and Washington, D.C., gathered to share brunch and conversation. The holiday mood helped alumni reconnect to celebrate their common bond, as well as meet new friends.

Self-Defense Classes » In January, DePaul kicked off Self-Defense Awareness Month with two sold-out classes for women alumni at The Ray. Instructors offered participants training on situational awareness, basic verbal techniques and effective physical responses to unwanted verbal or physical confrontation to help them stay safe in almost any situation.
