(Here describe the cash, securities, or other personal or real property which is the subject of the gift.)

For a GIFT in TRUST

Gifts intended for De Paul (either during life or by will) sometimes contemplate special arrangements such as a life income to special beneficiaries before final distribution. In such cases, the University will gladly co-operate with you as your client's counsel to assure a complete understanding agreeable to all concerned. You are invited to discuss this type of gift with the officials of the University at any time.
