Les retraites de 10 jours pour les ordinands

Preface by Robert P. Maloney, C.M.

Published by Pierre Téqui, Paris, France, 2004, 347 pages

This work “constitutes the first volume of three manuscripts that date from the 17th century and includes the morning and evening conferences given during The Ten-Day Retreats. Preached for the first time by St. Vincent and two doctors of the Sorbonne for the Diocese of Beauvais in 1628, these conferences were rewritten by St. Vincent, with the help of Jean-Jacques Olier, François Perocchel, Antoine Godeau and Nicolas Pavillon. These Ten-Day Retreats have played a considerable role in the history of the Church in France, notably in the establishment of seminaries, and have contributed, thanks to the impulse of the Council of Trent, in restoring the image of the priest, which has remained down to our days. Thanks to the immense work of Fr. Gerard Carroll, an Irish priest, these texts appear for the first time in the history of the Church” (taken from the back cover of the book).

El seguimiento de Jesús en San Vicente de Paúl

Published by CEME, Salamanca, Spain, 2004, 174 pages

The subject of the following of Jesus has been interpreted and lived out in different ways. Thousands of men and women, in a given moment of history, have responded to Jesus’ invitation and, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, have made current this following of Jesus. In this book — which is a partial publication of a thesis for a Degree in Spiritual Theology presented at the Pontifical Comillas University in Madrid — the author attempts to respond to the following questions: How did St. Vincent respond to the call of Jesus? How did he experience it? and How did he propose it for the men of his time? In the first chapter, he analyzes “following” in the New Testament and in the history of spirituality. In the second, in a diachronic perspective, he studies the existential and spiritual itinerary of Vincent de Paul with a view to characterizing the different stages in his process of following Jesus. Finally, in the last chapter, the entire process of following Jesus according to St. Vincent de Paul is presented in a more systematic form: What Christ is to be followed? What steps are to be taken? What is, in short, in the perspective of Vincent de Paul, the attitude to life that the follower must assume? As the adviser of the thesis, Luis González-Carbajal, emphasizes in the presentation of the book, the subject is “thought-provoking,” but still more “deed-provoking.”

VINCENT DE PAUL

Conferences of Saint Vincent de Paul to the Daughters of Charity

Volume 9

Published by New City Press, Hyde Park, New York, USA, 2005, 562 pages

Volume 9, the first of two volumes of the Conferences of Saint Vincent de Paul to the Daughters of the Charity has been published! As it says in the introduction: In these pages we see the complete picture of Saint Vincent of Paul.... His language is warm and lively, simple and conversational, convincing and shrewd, instructive and practical.... These talks were the vehicle that the founder used for the group formation of the first sisters in the spirit and the virtues of “true” Daughters of the Charity. Vincent encouraged the participation of the sisters through the use of questions and answers, an innovative method for the 17th century and a way to assure that they understood that which was presented to them: “Sister, you who are in the back, please tell us your thoughts.” Even after almost 400 years, the prudence and wisdom of Vincent, as found in these conferences and in the Conferences to the Congregation of the Mission enrich and delight the reader of 21st century.

Volumes 1-8 are available for US $ 39.00 each, plus shipping. Volume 9 (Conferences, Daughters of the Charity), is available for US $ 39.00, plus shipping. Volumes 13a/b Documents (collection) are available for US $ 69.95, plus shipping. MISEVI

Nuevos horizontes para los laicos. MISEVI

Published by La Milagrosa, Madrid, Spain, 2004, 197 pages

This book is a collection of the principal talks and the Final Document from the First International Meeting of MISEVI (Lay Vincentian Missionaries), which was held in Mexico City from 31 July to 3 August 2003. The text also includes other related articles with materials such as a missionary formation plan, a model for national statutes and some guidelines for a missionary agreement when lay persons are sent on mission. In the preface of this book, Fr. Maloney states that this publication “contains much valuable, fundamental information about MISEVI. I trust that it will be especially helpful to lay Vincentians throughout the world as they attempt to nourish and concretize their missionary vocation.” The publisher, La Milagrosa, with the collaboration, as in the case of the present edition, of the Vincentian Family Office in Rome, recently published similar material for the AMM (Association of the Miraculous Medal) and intends to publish anything comparable relating to the other Associations of the Vincentian Family.
