Call for Event Proposals for the 6th Annual LGBTQA Month!!
The 6th annual LGBTQA Month at DePaul will be celebrated this coming May. We invite proposals for events occurring during May that look at LGBTQA issues through one of the following themes: Reforming Policies; Engaging Communities; Celebrating Identities. The proposal submission form is now live and available via this link: http://is.gd/LGBTQAMonthProposal. LGBTQA Month at DePaul is celebrated in May every year, programs and events can range in style, scope, and target audience. We strongly encourage collaboration between student organizations and university departments/offices in planning and proposing events. The deadline for proposals is February 15, 2013 at 5:00 p.m. Questions or concerns can be directed to LGBTQAServices@depaul.edu or 773-325-7294.

Career Center Outreach Hours
Thursdays Ongoing 9:00AM – 12:00PM
We are excited to announce that beginning January 10, 2013, Kara Peterson, a graduate intern in the Career Center, will be holding weekly outreach hours in the LGBTQA Student Services. Stop by any time, no appointment is necessary! Below is a bit about Kara and the types of services she is able to provide to you in our office.

“Kara Peterson is currently completing her graduate internship in the Career Center at DePaul and is delighted to be extending her services to the LGBTQA office. She can assist with career exploration...
Week of 12/10/12 – 12/16/12 with the use of various assessment tools, resume construction and critiques, practice interviewing, job or internship search and much more. She also recently attended the Out for Work Conference and would be happy to talk about that experience and provide insights on career development through the LGBTQA lens. Kara enjoys meeting new students, travel, Breaking Bad marathons and hanging out with her wife, Nicole and their two dogs, Ollie and Lola.”

Lending Library

The Office has a wide selection of books and movies that are dying to be checked out. Stop in anytime to pick out a book to read for fun or use for a class. Some of our selections include:
Another Country: Queer Anti-Urbanism
By: Scott Herring

The metropolis has been the near exclusive focus of queer scholars and queer cultures in America. Asking us to look beyond the cities to the coasts, Scott Herring draws a new map, tracking how rural queers have responded to this myopic mindset. Interweaving a wide range of disciplines – art, media, literature, performance, and fashion studies – he develops an extended critique of how metronormativity saturates LGBTQ politics, artwork, and criticism. To counter this ideal, he offers a vibrant theory of queer anti-urbanism that refuses to dismiss the rural as a cultural backwater.

The Bisexuals Guide to the Universe: Quips, Tips, and Lists for Those Who Go Both Ways
By: Nicole Kristal and Mike Szymanski

Bisexual, queer, pansexual, or none of the above? Want the best of both worlds? Discover where you fall on the Kinsey scale, brush up on bi pop culture, learn the advantages of being bi, and find out how to seduce anyone – regardless of sexual orientation. Increase your Bi-Q now!

Film: Trevor

Trevor is a buoyantly charming 13 year-old boy who loves to lip-sync to Diana Ross records, has a flair for the dramatic, and develops a crush on his new friend, the most popular boy in school, Pinky Faraday. His world comes crashing down when his feelings for Pinky are discovered. Mocked by his classmates, rejected by his peers, and branded a “fairy,” Trevor is shunned by his new best friend and attempts to kill himself. But Trevor is no victim and you can be certain that his enthusiasm and developing sense of self will see him through.

Events on Campus

Sexual Assault Support Group
Mondays Starting January 21, 2013  6:00PM – 7:00PM

This weekly group allows female survivors of sexual assault (experienced recently or in the past) to join together to gain support from one another and to learn ways to cope with the aftermath of the assault. Group members are not asked to share details of their assault but, rather, have the opportunity to explore the impact it has had on their lives. Group members will be able to share their experiences and feelings in an understanding, confidential and accepting environment. Goals of the group will be to help members express feelings, reduce guilt and self-blame, develop positive coping strategies, and strengthen self-esteem. To schedule an informational session prior to joining or for more information, please contact Ann Bregman at (773) 325-4767 or Liz Miller at (773) 325-1393.

JASMYN Hip for Men Case Manager Position

The Mission of the Jacksonville Area Sexual Minority Youth Network (JASMYN) is to support and empower lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and questioning (LGBTQ) youth by creating safe space, providing youth development services and bringing people and resources together to promote diversity and human rights. JASMYN is seeking to hire a case manager. We are seeking to hire a qualified professional that has experience working with LGBT youth and youth that have multiple issues and needs. This person will have experience working with youth development programs, substance abuse treatment and/or HIV prevention and intervention. The primary role of the JASMYN Hip for Men Case Manager is to provide outreach, engagement and linkage casework services to high risk young men of color who have sex with men (YMCSM). The case manager will work under collaboration between JASMYN, Gateway Community Services, and other service providers, to identify high risk YMCSM for testing and linkage to HIV care, Hepatitis care, risk reduction services, and substance abuse treatment – as needed and appropriate. The Case Manager will also provide support to and participate as a contributing member of the JASMYN team working with all programs and services offered at JASMYN. Cover letter and detailed résumé with at least three references are due by December 17, 2012 to apply@jasmyn.org. For more information, please visit http://jasmyn.org/about-jasmyn/employment-internships/.

Point Foundation Scholarships Available to LGBTQ Students

Point Scholarships are designed to help promising LGBTQ students achieve their full academic and leadership potential despite obstacles. Scholars must demonstrate academic excellence, leadership skills, community involvement, and financial need. Attention also will be paid to students who have lost the financial and social support of their families and/or communities as a result of revealing their sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression. Point Scholars must agree to maintain a high level of academic performance and to give back to the LGBTQ community through the completion of an individual community service project each year. Scholarships provide approximately $25,000 per scholar, per year. Each scholar is paired with a mentor and participates in leadership development training with fellow Point Scholars, including an annual leadership conference. Applications are due January 14, 2013 by 11:59PM. Please visit www.pointfoundation.org for more information and to fill out the online application.

Curious About Exploring Your Faith as an LGBTQ Person?

DePaul Believers Out Loud is a new student ministry forming on campus that seeks to explore the positive relationship between DePaul’s LGBTQA community and the Christian faith. If you are interested in learning more or would like to be a part of this new journey find us on Facebook by searching “DePaul Believers Out Loud” or email us at believersoutloud.dpu@gmail.com!

Research Opportunities

If you are at least 18 years of age and identify as gay, lesbian, or bisexual, you are eligible to participate in research looking at the coming out process and how this process is related to self-esteem and depression. The survey takes about 10-15 minutes to complete and all answers are completely anonymous. This research has been approved by the Institutional Review Board at Humboldt State University. For more information, please contact Meghan Henry at meghanmhenry@gmail.com.

If you identify as a sexual or gender minority (gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, pansexual, queer, etc.) and 18 years of age or older, you are eligible to participate in a study looking to examine the relationship between geographic location, experiences with healthcare providers, and physical and psychological well-being in individuals who identify as a sexual or gender minority. The survey is estimated to take 30-45 minutes to complete and all answers are anonymous. Those who submit a completed survey will be entered into a drawing for one of thirty $50 Amazon.com gift certificates. This research has been approved by the Institutional Review Board at Georgia Southern University. For more information, please contact Kayla LeLeux-LaBarge at kl02829@georgiasouthern.edu.
