The history of every parcel of land in Cook County...what's it worth to you?

Because of the number of important real estate transactions in which you are involved, the history of every parcel of land in Cook County is worth a great deal to you. And to have it all under one roof makes it even more valuable.

Because Chicago Title and Trust Company has the only tract books covering the entire chain of title to every parcel of land in Cook County, title searches can be made and title insurance policies issued in much less time than would be required otherwise—and with greater assurance of accuracy and safety.

This means that real estate deals can proceed without delay, enabling you to give your client or customer prompt and profitable service.
